

Did You Know

The Council of Great City Schools has developed resources that will help you educate teachers, parents, and community leaders about the Common Core State Standards.

The Council of Great City Schools (CGCS) has created useful parent guides, videos, and public service announcements that explain the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). As you undertake efforts to manage CCSS in your school, you might find these resources to be useful in your communication with teachers, parents, and community leaders. English and Spanish language examples of CGCS resources can be found by clicking on the links below:
